

Apple Tree Unit Definitions

Autumn: Is the third season of the year in which leaves fall to the ground, fruits and crops are collected.

Blossom: The flower of a plant.

Crosspollination: When pollen from one plant mixes with the pollen of another plant.

Dwarf tree: A small tree.

Pollination: Is the act of transfer of pollen to a plant in order to allow fertilization.

Sapling: Is a young tree.

Seed: A plants unit of reproduction, that can develop into a plant. For example an apple seed develops into an apple tree.

Spring: Is a mild season between Winter and Summer.

Sprout: Is a small growth on a plant, means growth.

Standard tree: Normal average height of a tree.

